Chapter 1 by Charlotte

Brandon jiggled the lock over and over but he had no success.

"Move over" Xena said as she shoved past Brandon. She grabbed the two Bobby pins out of her hair that we're keeping her bangs out of her face. She bent them like it was nothing and stuck them into a lock. She twisted it and the door swung open.

"H-how?" Kris asked but Xena simply walking into the house. Brandon looked at Kris with wide eyes and followed her inside. As Xena searched around the house, police sirens began to go off. Xena cursed and ran to the kitchen window.

"Come on!" Xena screamed at Brandon and Kris as she hit her elbow into the window and shattered it. She jumped down and ran into the bushes. Kris and Brandon jumped down and ran. Xena was alone. She wasn't scared.

Chapter 2 by -

The police slammed against front door and stormed atop it. When they saw Xena, they suddenly halted, aimed their guns, and yelled "Hands up!"

But Xena didn't listen, she decided to play deaf. Her eyes opened wide and innocent as a child-like smile spread across her face. Then she made a few movements with her hands, faking to know Sign Language.

The policemen lowered their weapons and relaxed their tense bodies. They let out a sigh. "She can't speak Chief..." Several other officers joined from the side. "The house is empty, Sir. We have found no people inside, but we did come across this." As the man spoke he handed the Chief a plastic baggy. The Chief held it up to the light and rubbed his fingers against the substance. "Meth"
